

Ibrahim Ali

Systems Analyst

ibrahim.ali@email.com | +20 123 456 7890 |  github.com/ibrahim-ali |  linkedin.com/in/ibrahim-ali | ibrahimali.com

Summary

Highly motivated and self-driven Systems Analyst with vast experience in various environments and technologies in support of multiple departments across the enterprise. Expertise in Software Development Lifecycle (SDLC) and Computer Systems Validation (CSV). Looking for an opportunity to apply and develop strong analytical skills and problem solving techniques.

Education

Villanova University

M.S: Computer Science Data Communications

1996, Cairo

LaSalle University

B.A: Computer Science

1985, Giza

Experience

Consultant

Vodafone Egypt

January 1999 - November 2015

- Provided consultant expertise in various roles supporting McNeil Consumer Healthcare including but not limited to the following applications: shop floor application, document management application, timekeeper application, business process applications.
- Knowledgeable in the SDLC process and GxP, SOX compliant applications. Most supported applications have been FDA validated applications requiring significant Computer System Validation experience.
- Project Leadership roles in several projects including application upgrades. Provides support to a GxP compliant document management application based on Documentum D2 as well as older Documentum DCM environments.
- Support includes detailed analysis of issues including document transformation, printing issues, reporting and general user troubleshooting.
- Providing Level 2 Production Application support, attend to user requests through ITSM and emails Monitoring the Support Mailbox during the Support hours Generating Scheduled and Adhoc Reports for Users Daily Consistency Checks to ensure proper functioning of the servers, services and Documentum jobs and other related activities Bug fixing in the application supported that may require Change Requests Providing solutions to minor Enhancements in the Application that requires Change Requests Responsible for Doing Root cause analysis for recurring issues.
- Escalating to Level 3 Support/ application Core Team where issue is out of scope of Level 2. Follow up with different support groups like Windows Team, DBA Team as and when needed Monitoring the Validation Environment to ensure proper functioning. Monitoring the Training Environment to ensure User Training can run smoothly.
- Provides support to SOX compliant payroll application which tracks the hourly wage employees times and reports into the J&J corporate system. Provides support to multiple Microsoft Access database and applications. Prior support including designing, developing and testing VBA code in the databases and Excel spreadsheets.
- Provided support to FDA-validated manufacturing application that aided the shop floor in reporting activities involved in the manufacturing process as well as creating, managing and reporting on non-conformances. Involved in various roles and projects to support IT rollouts and upgrades of the Windows operating system.

Consultant

Orange Egypt

January 1990 - January 1999

- Provided consultant expertise to customers in various roles and expertise including but not limited to the following responsibilities: Provided design, development, testing and support for Client/server messaging application to provide the communication between VAX and IBM systems for a large steel company.
- Provided design, development, testing and support for and electronic batch record application within a large team consisting of consultants and customer.

- Provided relational database expertise on multiple projects for various applications and technologies. Provided training for several Digital products to customers.
- Provided system administration support to several customers.

Systems Programmer

Egy-Tech Solutions

January 1985 - January 1990

- Designed, developed, tested and supported a real-time client/server application to provide messaging communications from a VAX/VMS application to an IBM application. The application tracked the movement of trains and locations.
- The application was originally written in assembly language and later converted to C. Provided general system and network administration support.

Skills

Programming Languages: Assembly language - C - C++ - VBA - HTML

Databases: MS Access - SQL - Relational Database - Database Applications - DBA

Operating Systems: Windows - Windows 2000 - Windows XP - Windows Server - VAX/VMS

Skills: SDLC - CSV - Documentum - Project Leadership - Analytical - Problem Solving - Communication - Organizational

Other: Client/Server - Data Communications - System Administration - Network Administration - Reporting - Troubleshooting - Validation - User Training - Manufacturing Process