

Ahmed Mohamed

Information Technology Provisioning Technician

ahmed.mohamed@email.com | +20 123 456 7890 |  github.com/ahmed-mohamed |  linkedin.com/in/ahmed-mohamed | ahmedmohamed.com

Summary

Process driven, goal oriented, Information Security Leader with 5 years of IT and security experience. A self-motivated Governance manager that is adept at analyzing and remediating threat vectors on an enterprise level. Bolsters corporate strategy, enhances daily security operations and delivers improved and optimized business protection, while leading a geographically diverse team adept at problem solving and risk analysis.

Education

Heald College

Associate of Applied Sciences (AAS) - Network Security

Heald College

Associates of Arts (AA) - Information Technology

Heald College

Associates of Arts and Sciences (AAS) - Business Administration Software Technology

Experience

Information Security & Compliance Manager

SolarCity, Cairo, Egypt

November 2013 - PRESENT

- Responsible for Enterprise Information Security and Architecture, Risk Management and Compliance, understanding business issues and concerns, determining business and security requirements, designing architecture and applying Security Technologies to mitigate risk and ensure compliance with SolarCity policies and standards.
- Implementation and administration of forensic imaging enterprise solution. Utilized to conduct covert and overt collection and analysis of at-risk employees identified by our Legal team.
- Creation and maintenance of IT SOX Governance and Compliance program
- Concept-to-completion driver for the deployment of Vulnerability Assessment platform
- Interdepartmental mediator focused on converting identified risks, divergent programming and non-compliant applications and software into enterprise-level solutions complete with policy guidance and remediation measures
- Vendor assessment, negotiation and then implementation of an upgraded security platform including firewall, proxy, category-based filter and VPN
- Managed Information Security projects, including planning and development of new processes and technologies in areas of intrusion detection and response, management of vulnerability assessment practices, and vpn authentication.
- Identified technical/mobility improvements to physical security designs, providing a risk-based methodology, increased incident management landscape and reduced operational expenditure
- Author and maintain all Information Technology, and Information Security policies for the enterprise
- Administered and coordinated the conversion of existing whole disk encryption platform (Symantec PGP) to new platform.

Information Technology Provisioning Technician

Vodafone Egypt, Giza, Egypt

10/2012 to 08/2013

- Provisioned, troubleshoot, and repaired laptops, desktops, MiFi's, and corporate cellular phones
- Managed the network operations center, which serviced upwards of 100 clients over multiple geographic locations with varying degrees of service contracts, in significantly diverse environments.
- Utilization of N-Central monitoring and patch management platform to audit and report on customer compliance and software usage statistics to prepare and present recommendations to increase security and productivity of the business

- Architected, implemented, and documented various Exchange and Active Directory deployments within each customer's individual ecosystem, and tracked utilization statistics to increase revenue for the operations center.

Information Technology Provisioning Technician

Orange Egypt, Cairo, Egypt

08/2013 to 11/2013

- McAfee EEPIC). Worked with multiple departments and executive teams to ensure a timely and complete roll-out of product.
- Served as a technical lead and a tier 2 escalation resource for multiple applications and operating systems. Support included Windows (XP and 7), Linux (Red Hat), and Mac (OSX).
- Administration, troubleshooting, reclamation, and issuance of RSA soft and hard tokens.
- Served as main escalation point for de-synchronization issues and hardware-based troubles.
- Led the executive support team which provided "white-glove" support for director level and above
- Active Directory administration ranging from SSO integration to forest creation, to simple user administration.
- Identified, researched and resolved AD issues relating to advanced administration and GPO creation.
- Provided remote and local support to an employee base of over 7000 employees, contractors, and consultants.
- Resolved complex hardware and software issues, and served as tier 2 and 3 support when needed. Utilized multiple ticketing systems to track customer issues, including Numara Footprints and Kayako

Information Technology Consultant

Egy-Tech Solutions, Alexandria, Egypt

12/2011 to 02/2013

- N/A

Projects

N/A

- N/A

Certificates

Comptia A Certification

Comptia Security Certification

Skills

Skills: A Certification - Active Directory - AD - Anti-Virus - hardware - McAfee - Symantec - TCP/IP

Operating Systems: Windows (XP, - Linux (Red Hat) - Mac (OSX)

Software Applications: Microsoft Exchange - Mail - Firewall - Proxy - VPN - N-Central - Numara Footprints - Kayako

Other: Business Process - Compliance Manager - Contract Negotiation - DNS - IDS - Imaging - Information Security - Networking - Policies - Processes - Programming - Risk Management - Troubleshooting - Technical Trainer - Gateway - Disaster Recovery

Extracurricular Activities

N/A

N/A

- N/A